WHEREAS, the pharmacists of the State of South Dakota are members of the vital health profession that safeguards the well-being of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, these pharmacists give of their time and talents in this specialized professional service to the public, making medication available to all on a moment's notice; and

WHEREAS, National Pharmacy Week, under the auspices of the South Dakota Pharmaceutical Association will be observed during the week of October 3-9, 1965, to direct public attention to the importance of pharmaceutical service in our lives and

WHEREAS, the 500 registered pharmacists of our State of South Dakota are participating in this annual observance

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 3-9, 1965, as and urge all our residents to consider during this week the importance of the pharmacist, upon whose skill and training the health and well-being of us all so largely depend.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 27th day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.
